

March E-letter

CYO Athletics Community,

With Easter rapidly approaching, we'll be reminded again of Christ's hope for the world, in the resurrection. Many times it is easy to move past Easter, celebrating the joy of the Risen King, and forget the message Jesus brought Jerusalem prior to His crucifixion.

"As he drew near, he saw the city and wept over it, saying "If this day you only knew what makes for peace-but now it is hidden from your eyes. For the days are coming upon you when your enemies will raise a palisade against you; they will encircle you and hem you in on all sides. They will smash you, and they will not leave one stone upon another within you because you did not recognize the time of your visitation."

Luke: 20:41-44

We need to remember Christ's message. He tells us how we can have peace with people, with fellow athletes, coaches, parents, administrators, officials, and everyone involved in programs of CYO Athletics and our community. The message for peace Jesus gave Israel is the same message for us today. Jesus' messages of love and reconciliation are just as counter-cultural today as they were when they were first spoken.

"For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord. As high as the heavens are above the earth, so high are my ways above your ways and my thoughts above your thoughts."

Isaiah 55:8-9

Christ asks us to demonstrate his ways, and his disciplines. As we move forward in our sport programming, as well as in life, it is costly to follow Christ, but it will pay off.

"When the Lord is pleased with a man's ways, he makes even his enemies be at peace with him."

Proverbs 16:7

Our ultimate goal is to keep Christ the center of our focus, being obedient to Him, and the Lord will watch over us.
